It's Showtime!

The ANZUNS NSW-ACT Section
Professional Development Day 2023

FRIDAY, 28 APRIL 2023 | 8:30 AM - 11:00 PM

The role of the urological nurse is ever-changing; therefore, it is important that one must keep abreast with the latest evidence regarding urological care. The ANZUNS NSW-ACT Section (then, NSW Urological Nurses Society) is known for providing education in a unique and entertaining way.

This latest offering will surely delight you! The topics chosen for this event will amuse and inform you. Our aim is to leave you with information for use in clinical practice, stories to share with your team, and new collegial associates to help you advance your career.
